Govt asks airlines to fly fewer flights during G20 in Delhi

More than a thousand commercial flights could either be rescheduled or cancelled as the government has instructed airlines to curtail frequency by a fourth throughout the G20 summit next month due to parking constraints at Delhi airport. Simultaneously, airlines have also been asked to reposition some of their aircraft, which are parked at Delhi, to other airports. The Summit will be held from September 9. Airline executives have warned of nationwide network repercussions, leading to flight cancellations as Delhi is India's primary airport. Amid crowded hotels and road closures announced by Delhi police, travel agents have advised travellers to cancel plans for those specific days. Heads of state of nearly 30 countries and top international organisations will participate in the G20 summit being held in Delhi on September 9 & 10.

Bhutan reduces SDF to woo dollar-paying tourists

The Government of Bhutan has announced its decision to reduce sustainable development fees (SDF) for dollar-paying tourists in an attempt to revive the tourism sector. The Ministry of Industry, Commerce and Employment announced a 50 per cent discount on the prevailing SDF of USD 200 for US dollar-paying tourists visiting the country. After the move was announced, the effective SDF with the discount will now be USD 100 per person per day. The new changes will come into effect from September 1 and will remain effective till August 31, 2027.
