WTTC Global Summit to be held in Perth, Western Australia

During the closing session of the World Travel & Tourism Council's (WTTC) Global Summit in Kigali, Western Australia was announced as the host for 2024, marking the first time the event will visit Oceania.

The 24th Global Summit will be taking place in Perth in late 2024, in partnership with Tourism Western Australia. WTTC closed its first ever Global Summit in Africa recently with more than 1,200 delegates attending the event in Kigali, Rwanda. Julia Simpson, WTTC President & CEO, said, "The success of this year's Global Summit in Kigali is testament to the power of Africa's Travel & Tourism sector. Through Rwanda, the continent has well and truly put itself on the map." "We are so excited to be heading 'Down Under' next year. Western Australia and the beautiful city of Perth have always been popular destinations and we're sure attendees will enjoy a real taste of quintessential Australian hospitality."
